

SUMMER READING GUIDE
FOR ST. MARY'S RISING
3RD AND 4TH GRADERS

Includes Great Reading Suggestions
to Keep You Reading All Summer Long and Required Reading to Finish Before School Resumes

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

PAGE 2	A WELCOME
PAGE 3	AWARD WINNING BOOKS, 2018
PAGE 4	STUDENTS' PICKS
PAGE 5-9	FAB FICTION
PAGE 10	SOME GROOVY GRAPHIC NOVELS
PAGE 11-12	NONFICTION & BIOGRAPHIES
PAGE 13	POETRY
PAGE 14	REQUIRED SUMMER READING
PAGE 15-16	READING LOG

WELCOME TO A WORLD OF READING!

In a couple of nutshell...

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW:

- reading is fun!
- reading is good for you
- reading is very good for you
- reading is very, very good for you
- St. Mary's wants students to keep reading all summer

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

- read—at least 5 books on or near your reading level
- use this guide to make finding good books easy, but just read whenever, wherever, and whatever you can
- new 5th graders at St. Mary's need to read the required book discussed on page 11 as well as at least 4 others;
- if you'd like a Certificate of Accomplishment, turn in a reading log by the first day of school.

Happy Reading!

--Mrs. England-Burnside, May 2018

AWARD WINNING BOOKS

THESE WERE THE TOP OF THE TOP FOR BOOKS PUBLISHED IN 2017!

Randolph Caldecott Award

Wolf in the Snow by Matthew Cordell

Theodore Seuss Geisel Award

Charlie and Mouse by Laurel Snyder

John Newbery Award

Hello, Universe by Erin Entrada Kelly

Robert F. Sibert Informational Book Award

Twelve Days in May: Freedom Ride 1961 by Larry Dane Brimer

Coretta Scott King Awards

AUTHOR AWARD: Piecing Me Together by Renee Watson

ILLUSTRATOR AWARD: Out of Wonder, by Kwame Alexander

Pura Belpre Awards

AUTHOR AWARD: Lucky Broken Girl by Ruth Behar

ILLUSTRATOR AWARD: La Princesa and the Pea, by Susan Middleton-Elya

Boston Globe-Horn Book Awards

PICTURE BOOK AWARD: Freedom Over Me by Ashley Bryan

Sequoyah Award (given by children)

Roller Girl by Victoria Jamieson

The Irma Black Award (given by children)

7 Ate 9: The Untold Story by Tara Lazar

The Oklahoma Book Award

CHILDREN'S AWARD:

Angie Debo by Patricia Loughlin

STUDENTS' PICKS!

This year's Third and Fourth Graders wanted to encourage the new third and fourth graders to read some of the favorite books they've read in the last year or two. Enjoy!

For New Third Graders:

Morgan says: Sophie Quire and the Last Storyguard by Jonathan Auxier, and the "Percy Jackson" series by Rick Riordan

Sawyer says: The Twits by Roald Dahl,
and The Book With No Pictures by B.J. Novak

Matthew says: Good Grief Third Grade by Colleen O'Shaughnessy McKenna, and Hero: Hurricane Rescue by Jennifer Li Shotz

Stella says: The "Humphrey" books by Betty Birney, King Baby by Kate Beaton

Coral says: Tikki Tikki Tembo by Arlene Mosel, and Frogkisser! by Garth Nix

Gabby says: Maxi's Secrets by Lynn Plourde

Jenny says: The Secrets of Hexbridge Castle by Gabrielle Kent

Colin says: Smile by Raina Telgemeier and the "Harry Potter" series

Lynley says: The "Warriors" series by Erin Hunter, and the "Thea Stilton" series by Geronimo Stilton

Raleigh says: Come Home Barkley by Marilyn Anderson

Caleb says: The Castle in the Attic by Elizabeth Winthrop

Van says: The Best Friend Battle by Lindsay Eyre

Eli says: The "Stink" series by Megan McDonald

Kyler says: ALL the "Harry Potter" books by J.K. Rowling (in order)

Sam says: Who Was Elvis? by Geoff Edgers

For New Fourth Graders:

Ava says: A Wrinkle in Time by Madeleine L'Engle, and On the Blue Comet by Rosemary Wells

Olivia says: Closed for the Season by Mary Downing Hahn and Crenshaw by Katherine Applegate

Andie says: The Night Gardener by Jonathan Auxier and The Mouse With the Question Mark Tail by Richard Peck

Delaney says: Honey by Sarah Weeks

Maddy says: Closed for the Season by Mary Downing Hahn

FABULOUS FICTION!

HERE ARE AMAZING NEW BOOKS,
AWESOME CLASSICS, AND PLENTY IN BETWEEN!

KEY TO GENRE SYMBOLS:

 = a Classic  = Science Fiction  = Fantasy  = Funny!
 = Mystery/Detective Story * = part of a series  = Animal Fiction  = Spooky
 = Sports  = Adventure  = Historical Fiction

  Harry Miller's Run

David Almond

So how did people in olden times, like 1938, beat the heat? On the island nation of England, they went to the beach. But what if you don't live really near the beach? Run to it! That's what Harry Miller and his pals did one glorious day. Revel in the fun British dialect and enjoy!

Wishtree

Katherine Applegate

Everyone knows that trees don't talk—or do they? Red, short for north-ern red oak, is chattier than most trees and notices a worrying situation in the neighborhood. How can Red and his friend Bongo the crow, do something to help? A story of unity and understanding—a must-read.

*    The House With a Clock In Its Walls

John Bellairs

This book has visited my summer reading guides for years and it looks like someone was paying attention because this chilling book of orphans, witches, and possibly the end of the world is being made into a major motion picture this fall! Read it over the summer to be in the know!

Fashion Academy*

Sheryl Berk

The first of a new series about students at FAB (aka: the Fashion Academy of Brooklyn) Middle School. Meet MacKenzie who is brand new. She's a star student, but the students want nothing to do with her goth style. Will she lose herself to fit in, or be true to who she is?

 The Dragon with a Chocolate Heart

Stephanie Burgis

Have you ever wished you were a dragon? Have you ever wished you could do something magical, like turn one animal into another? Then read this book and satisfy both wishes! Meet Aventurine, the dragon who is about to have the adventure of her life!

  Sputnik's Guide to Life on Earth

Frank Cottrell Boyce

Prez lives with his grandpa, or did until grandpa's dementia made it impossible for him to take care of anything, especially Prez. At his new foster family's country home, Prez meets "Sputnik," a dog who isn't just a dog, but a hopeful hero whose mission is to save Earth!

   The Wonderful Flight to the Mushroom Planet

Eleanor Cameron

This book has been in print for over 60 years because it's just such a fun ride. Follow two brothers, Chuck and David, as they make their own rocket ship which will take them to Basidium, otherwise known as, the "Mushroom Planet", to help the lifeforms living there.

The Losers Club

Andrew Clements

6th grader Alec is told by his teachers that he must participate in an after school club, though they all seem awful. So, he creates his own—"The Losers Club." A great introduction to all kinds of great literature and the idea that it's okay to stand up for what you believe in.

 The Mighty Dynamo

Kieran Crowley

Travel to Ireland and meet Noah, who is super keen on soccer (aka: 'football'). Noah is excited to help his school get in a World Cup-type match for schools but is unjustly kicked off his team, so he looks to "St. Mary's School for Girl's" to form a new team. Can they make the match?

*  The Moffats

Eleanor Estes

Oh what a treat this first of the classic series is! Come on and meet the Moffats—all four kids plus their mother who live in a tiny Connecticut village where the kids get into mischief on a near daily basis. You'll laugh out loud and nod in understanding or wish to be a Moffat for a day!

☺ The Vanderbeekers of 141st Street

Karina Yan Glaser

Just before Christmas, the happy Vanerbeeker family receives the news that their landlord wants them out of their Harlem brownstone. The children try to charm their way into the landlord's heart in order to change his mind with mixed results. Featured in many "Best of 2017" lists.

🏆 Force Out

Tim Green

Two best friends look forward to joining an elite baseball team, helping each other all along the way, until a day comes when they must compete against each other to earn the one remaining spot left. Will their friend-ship be able to stand this test? Written by an NFL pro!

🦋 The Song from Somewhere Else

A. F. Harrold

Francesca, or, "Frank", is having an awful summer break until that big weird kid Nick from school saves her from a bully. While hiding from the bully at Nick's house, Frank hears mysteriously beautiful, other-worldly music which leads to beautiful discoveries, and new friendships.

📖 The Phantom Tollbooth

Norton Juster

This classic story will take you on adventures into imaginary lands which will have your brain doing leaps and bounds. This truly encourages readers to be active in their own education and to appreciate the process as it can be fun if you make it so!

*🐉 Where the Mountain Meets the Moon

Grace Lin

Based on centuries of Chinese folklore, meet Minli who just wants to help her poor family. She buys a goldfish that is supposed to bring luck, which she needs on her quest to find the Old Man of the Moon who is supposed to tell the secret to good fortune. Also, she befriends a dragon!

📖 Snow Treasure

Marie McSwigan

It's 1940 and the world is at war. Everyone on the side of the Allies does their part to thwart and defeat evil Hitler, even children. In Norway, children were enlisted to help smuggle a lot of the country's stores of gold into hiding, which they really did. Based on a true story.

☺ 🏠 When Mischievous Came to Town

Katrina Nannestad

This was on last year's list, too, but it's just so good it deserves a second run. It's a cross between Pippi Longstocking, Anne of Green Gables, and Oliver Twist. So funny and so touching...you may even read it twice, too.

Flying Lessons and Other Stories

edited by Ellen Oh

Ten short stories by ten award-winning children's authors make for quick and enjoyable reading—a good intro to short stories.

*🦎👉👤👤👤 Detective Gordon: A Case in Any Case

Ulf Nilsson

The latest in the funny series about the intrepid toad, Chief Detective Gordon. Except, he gave up being Chief Detective to retire. His assistant Buffy will be able to handle it, though, right? And Gordon can handle not being busy, right? A big case may bring them back together!

😊👤*👤👤 A Long Way from Chicago

Richard Peck

Oh, what a book—okay, not quite old enough to be a “classic” yet, but it is the best. Life throws Joey and Mary Alice lemons when they must leave Chicago to stay with their odd and reclusive, but unforgettable Grandma Dowdel, but she has the recipe for the best life lemonade ever!

🦎👤👤 Pax

Sara Pennypacker

Another book making a reappearance from last year's list, but also for excellent reasons. Reading this will delight and amaze you and make you truly appreciate those relationships in your life that are true gifts, whether they are with a human or a pet. A glorious page-turner.

😊 The First Rule of Punk

Celia C. Perez

Malu is the spirit of “punk”, an identity that makes her father proud but her mother cringe. When Malu's family moves to Chicago, she has a chance to really try to find her identity and make both parents happy.

👤 Ben's Revolution: Benjamin Russell and the Battle of Bunker Hill

Nathaniel Philbrick

Twelve-year-old Ben witnesses the start of the American Revolution from his home in Boston where he is apprentice to a newspaper printer.

😊👤👤👤 Lizard Music

Daniel Pinkwater

Pinkwater's trademark goofy sense of humor is in full force as he leads us through Victor's comfortable world. When Victor meets an odd man who gets advice from his intelligent chicken, Claudia, he realizes things are about to get weird. A funny and quirky classic!

🦎🤔 Princess Cora and the Crocodile

Laura Amy Schlitz

Cora spends her days in boring how-to-be-a-queen lessons. Cora decides she just needs a dog to be happy—time to call on Fairy Godmother for help! But her Fairy Godmother has a different idea. Instead of a dog, why not a crocodile?

😊🐉 The Purloining of Prince Oleomargarine

Mark Twain & Philip C. Stead

While in Paris in 1879, Mark Twain began writing a story for his girls, which sat unfinished until just a few years ago, when Mr. Stead read the notes and his wife, Erin, gave it illustrations. The story itself is fun—Johnny, who can speak to animals, goes on a quest to save a Prince!

* 🦕 Addison Cooke and the Tomb of the Khan

Jonathan W. Stokes

Addison's adventures continue, which is good news for SMES students like 5th grader Sam who loved the first book. If you haven't read it, do so and then sink your teeth into another epic adventure! This time Addison must go to China to rescue his aunt & uncle from a deadly gang!

😊👧 The Real McCoys

Matthew Swanson

Moxie McCoy is an unforgettable character who will crack you up. She's a bit sad at the moment, though, as her best friend, Maude, has moved away. Moxie's search for a new bestie is put on hold when a majorly huge mystery goes down at school. Can she solve it? She's gonna try!

* Gone Camping: A Novel in Verse

Tamera Wissinger

The latest in the much-loved series about Lucy, Sam, and their dad. Don't let the whole "...in Verse" thing bother you. The different types of poetry used to tell the story are neat and actually make it even more enjoyable. Just ask the fifth graders who ask for this series by name!

🐈 Bruno: Some of the More Interesting Days in My Life So Far

Catharina Valckx

Bruno is a cat on the search for a perfect day. In six short stories, follow Bruno on some very feline adventures. Perfect for "just chillin'" time.

*😊 Hamster Princess: Giant Trouble!

Ursula Vernon

The latest in the fabulously funny series about Princess Harriet Hamsterbone! How will a hamster (plus her trusty battle quail "Mumphrey") can beat a giant? Read and find out!!!

GROOVY GRAPHIC NOVELS!

Graphic Novels have really moved into their own in the last decade, and rightly so. No longer do we think of them as being merely junky “comic books” but we recognize them as multi-sensory literature which requires the reader to infer, or take in visual cues from the text, in order to understand the context of the story which isn’t necessarily all written down in words. Graphic Novels are also often a bridge to more complex literature. Just like any form of literature, they may not all be winners, but here are some great ones, including classics and new series:

Super Series

“Asterix”	by Goscinny/Uderzo
“The Baby Sitter’s Club”	by Ann M. Martin/Raina Telgemeier
“Tintin”	by Hergé
“Babymouse”	by Jennifer Holm
“Lunch Lady”	by Jarrett Krosoczka
“Future Quest”	by Jeff Parker
“5 Worlds”	by Mark Siegel
“Binky”	by Ashley Spires
“Bone”	by Jeff Smith
“Hilo”	by Judd Winick

Great Stand-Alone Titles

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea Carl Bowen/Jules Verne
An exciting graphic re-imagining of the classic adventure story.

Brave Svetlana Chmakova
Jensen is a middle-schooler who retreats to his daydreams a lot—it’s safer there. See what happens when he has to face reality and be brave!

Super Narwhal and Jelly Jolt Ben Clanton
Okay, there’s one other “Narwhal” book, but just one, and you must know about Narwhal...or should I say, “Super Narwhal” with his own sidekick?

Lost in NYC: A Subway Adventure Nadja Spiegelman
A favorite from a couple of years ago makes a reappearance for the sake of all those traveling to big cities this summer.

NONFICTION & BIOGRAPHIES

Try these new and not-so-new fabulous books on “real” topics to keep that natural curiosity going all summer! Read about real places, real people, & real neat stuff!

Camp Out! The Ultimate Kids' Guide from the Backyard to the Back Woods

by Lynn Brunelle

A guide for camping with tips, tricks, instructions, recipes and much more.

Babar's Yoga for Elephants

Laurent de Brunhoff

Follow Babar and his clan as they investigate a form of exercise practiced by ancient elephants. It's yoga, of course—yoga made fun!

Grand Canyon

Jason Chin

Through lushly colored illustrations, follow a father and daughter on their journey through one of the natural wonders of the world.

Before She Was Harriet

Lesa Cline-Ransome

We all know of Harriet Tubman's greatest work, but what about her life before she was a hero? Read how it all started and meet a legend.

A Time to Act: John F. Kennedy's Big Speech

Shana Corey

Times were tense in 1963, with the Cold War starting, the space race & civil rights. Still, JFK had to inspire. Learn about that famous June speech.

Her Right Foot

Dave Eggers

When Eggers learned that the Lady Liberty's right foot is raised, he imagined her walking. Where would she go? What would she say?

This Is How We Do It

Matt Lamothe

If you've ever wondered what school, work, home life, etc. are like in Italy, Japan, Iran, India, Peru, Uganda, or Russia, this is for you!

The Youngest Marcher

Cynthia Levinson

One is never too young to make a difference, like Audrey did when she was just nine. Would you go to jail for your beliefs? Audrey did!

Caroline's Comets: A True Story

Emily Arnold McCully

Caroline lived in the 1700s and was assistant to her famous siblings, until she and her brother made a telescope & the universe opened up for her.

The Planet Gods: Myths and Facts About the Solar System

Jacqueline Mitton

The 2nd of Mitton's beautiful series on space and how people over the centuries and across the globe have learned its truths while telling tales.

Martí's Song for Freedom

Emma Otheguy

In the 3rd quarter Lunch Bunch, we read of poet José Martí. Read about this amazing poet and revolutionary, an embodiment of art & courage.

How Many Guinea Pigs Can Fit on a Plane?

Laura Overdeck

Overdeck's books always feature in these lists & here is her latest! Keep your brain sharp and whip smart with these fun math puzzles.

How To Be an Elephant

Katherine Roy

For budding naturalists, learn about the movements, habitats, challenges, and future of elephants. Be sure to enjoy the gorgeous illustrations!

Impact! Asteroids and the Science of Saving the World

Elizabeth Rusch

Scientists track and follow the kind of dangerous heavenly bodies that slammed into the Earth's surface 65 million years ago. Fast paced facts!

What's The Big Deal About First Ladies?

Ruby Shamir

Learn curious and interesting facts about many of the women at the sides of the most powerful men on earth! They have power of their own!

Can an Aardvark Bark?

Melissa Sweet

This book looks at animals and how they talk with others and the interesting sounds they make. Cut-paper illustrations by Steve Jenkins.

Schomburg: The Man Who Built a Library

Carole Boston Weatherford

If you've ever visited NYC and spent any time in their library system, you'll have heard of the Schomburg Center. Learn how it came to be!

Edible Science: Experiments You Can Eat

Jody Wheeler-Toppen

Satisfy your need to eat while also learning a bit more about the chemistry and physics of food!

PRETTY PERKY POETRY!

Animal Ark: Celebrating Our Wild World in Poetry & Pictures Kwame Alexander
National Geographic does it again, as does Mr. Alexander! He provides the poems and they provide amazing pics! Check this collection out!

Bravo! Poems About Amazing Hispanics Margarita Engle
I bet you thought we were done with José Martí, didn't you? He was inspiring and now, you can read about more famous Hispanics!

Firefly July: a Year of Very Short Poems (selected by Paul O. Janeczko)
Another collection of appealingly short poems, sure to entice you to read just one or two more. Or three. Or four.

I'm Just No Good at Rhyming Chris Harris
Oh boy...for all those who love to use language as a toy, this is for you. Full of jokes, puns and goofiness galore, get ready to laugh!

Cricket in the Thicket: Poems About Bugs Carol Murray
Yep, bugs can be pretty annoying in the summer. Unless you open this book and learn some pretty nifty facts hidden in silly poems!

One Minute till Bedtime: 60 Second Poems to Send You Off to Sleep
The poems themselves aren't exactly super-challenging, but rather short, sweet, funny, and neat. They will help you build up a poetry habit!

Winter Bees and Other Poems of the Cold Joyce Sidman
When you're feeling the need for some cool, grab this book and chill on down. Sidman writes about nature in a neat way—try it out!

Casey at the Bat Ernest Lawrence Thayer
A story told in ballad form and a classic of summertime. Memorize this to impress your teachers, friends and family.

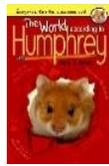

REQUIRED READING !

BUT YOU WOULD HAVE CHOSEN TO READ THESE BOOKS ANYWAY, THEY'RE SO GOOD!!!

Remember what the experts say: if you read at least 4-5 books on your reading level over the summer, you will be much better prepared to begin the new school year ready to learn. The simple act of reading can prepare you better than you realize. It can literally open doors for you. Being well-read can determine how you do on future tests, college entrance essays, your future career, your future relationships, and much more. Just read!!

3rd Graders: Mrs. Crawford has decided that students entering third grade in August 2018 get to read two different books over the summer, both wonderful and sure to make you want to read more and more. Both of these books are so popular with kids that they've been reprinted and may have a cover that looks different from what's shown below, but rest assured, the inside is the same.

- 1) The World According to Humphrey by Betty G. Birney and

+

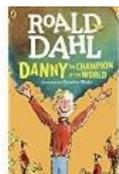

= Great Reading Fun!!!

- 2) Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing by Judy Blume

4th Graders: Students entering 4th grade are in for a treat as Mr. Krywicki has decided that the students will read Roald Dahl's classic: Danny, the Champion of the World. Enjoy, you lucky things! Mr. Krywicki will love to talk about the book when he sees you in August!

or

or

= all the same book!

MY READING LOG!

Here's the place to record what you've read over the summer and even what you thought of it!

TITLE _____ AUTHOR _____ # of Stars _____

1. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

2. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

3. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

4. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

5. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

6. _____

My favorite character: _____

My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

Read at least this many to get a Bookworm Award!

MY READING LOG, CONTINUED

TITLE _____ AUTHOR _____ # of Stars _____

7. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

8. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

9. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

10. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

11. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

12. _____
My favorite character: _____
My favorite part of the story: _____

Would I recommend this to my friends? Yes No (circle one)

DON'T STOP HERE!!!! KEEP GOING!
AND GOING! AND GOING!!!!!!!!!!!!